1.	From the Comptroller. Lr. No. S.H.T. 2975 of 21/7/31. Forwards for orders the report of the S. H. T. Officer on the petition received jointly and severally from Srimathi Krishnajammanni & her sons Messrs Gopalakrishna Swami Naik & Venkatarama Ananthasami Naik, Pollegar Pensioners of the Manjaravad family praying that the family pension of Rs. 153-10-4 may be distributed equally among the three sons of Krishnajammanni & registered separately in their names.

On the death of Krishnaswami Naik, the eldest son of Srimathi Krishnajammanni the pension in question was registered in the joint names of Krishnajammanni & her eldest surviving son, Gopalasami Naik (Vide No. 6-7 P.D. 796-97) of 4/5.8.97.

Krishnajammanni & her sons Messrs Gopalakrishnaswamy Naik & Venkatarama Ananthasami Naik jointly and severally pray that the family pension of Rs 153-10-4 may be distributed equally among her three sons and registered separately in their names.

Krishnajammanni having from quite old expresses her inability to be the Head Karavardar as she feels physically unfit to move out of the house the second joint karavardar Gopalakrishnaswami Naik and his brother Venkatarama Ananthasami Naik

With one exception to the proposal: Sitharama Naik, the second son of Krishnappa Nayak, objects in the grounds that on a former occasion when a similar request was made, Govt declined to accede to it (Vide G.O. No P.P. 98 of 12th Nov 1900) L.

The petitioners other prayer for a separate registry, Govt declines to consider request and the reason assigned for this decision was that "the mere fact that the sons now wish to remain separately is not grounds for asking the Govt to split up the pension during the life time of the registered holders" The request also amounts to a revision of the G.O. passed only 3 years previously (Vide G.O. No P.P. 98 of 12th Nov 1900) L'

There have however been numerous instances of Polegar families, where in similar circumstances Govt have split up the original pension and registered separately in the name of sub-sharers. The case of one Narayana Raja of Anegondi family is a notable example Narayana Raja, his brother Veeravarasar & two brothers Narasimha Raja & Jaga Raja requested that the pension of Rs 31-12-1 may be divided among them. The Khajana Backshi did not recommend the prayer for division of the pension. The Govt did not object to the Combined request of the brothers and passes orders effecting the distribution of the pension in G.O. No. 51-52 of 16.12.97 18

In the circumstances of the case under disposal, the S.H.T officer recommends that the entire family pension of Rs 153-10-4 may be split up into 4 shares and registered separately in the names of the sharers as follows: subject to the distribution being revised when any of the sharers dies according to the circumstances of the family at that time.

1. Krishnajammani Rs 24-0-0
2. M. Gopalakrishnaswami Naik " 43-3-5
3. M. Narasimha Naik " 43-3-5
4. M. Venkataramanaswami Naik " 43-3-5

Messrs M. Gopalakrishnaswami Naik & Venkataramanaswami have now agreed to pay their mother Rs 8/- each a month during her life time. It is stated in their petition to the State Govt. that this payment of Rs 8/- was being made to Sri Krishnajammani by her sons (nos 2, 3 & 4) according to an internal arrangement from their shares of pension. This distribution seems to have been agreed to so far back as by 1900 when they applied for separate registry.

Submitted for orders with reference.

The proposals may perhaps be sanctioned in the present circumstances

Order No. 20 R— JC 1275 & Encls

The S. H. T. Officer reports that Sri Krishnajammanni having gone blind and infirm pleads inability to be the Head karavandar and that Gopalakrishnaswami Naik, the second joint karavandar and his brother Venkataramanaswami Naik also pray for separate registry

3. ~~Under the circumstances represented~~ Govt are accordingly pleased to accept the arrangement proposed by the Officer in charge of the State Treasury and direct that the pension be distributed to the several members and their names duly registered for their respective shares as recommended

The pension in question is at present registered in the joint-names of Krishnajammanni & Gopalakrishna Naik. The former represents that she is 86 years' old & quite unfit to move about & the latter states that as he will be constantly absent from station, there has been much inconvenience to the family on account of the delay in the drawing & disbursal of the stipend.

2. The State Treasury Officer who has held an enquiry in the matter recommends that the entire pension may be split up into four shares & separately registered in the circumstances represented as stated above and the ~~List of Enclosure~~ shares registered separately in the names of the respective members

3. In the circumstances Govt are pleased to sanction the distribution and separate registration of the pension proposed.
